

The one for me

What's important in the ideal partner? People come up (0) .....with..... different formulae and priorities. Some say empathy, (9) ..... may be a good starting point, though I wonder whether it's enough to sustain a long-term relationship. Others say a keen (10) ..... of humour is vital and it is evident that those who laugh together establish a happy basis on which to build. Physical attraction is high on the list – luckily, we all have our own concept of (11) ..... makes someone good-looking, (12) ..... we'd all fall for the same person! They might not be handsome (13) ..... everyone's eyes but if they don't appeal to you, things quickly fall apart. (14) ..... it may be true that opposites attract, I wonder whether this is a short-term connection based (15) ..... curiosity and the longest relationships require shared interests. As (16) ..... me, I want a meeting of minds – personality is top of my list. Mind you, I'm still looking for my ideal partner!
